

Faculty Wives Will Award Scholarship

Faculty wives of El Camino College will offer a new scholarship annually to coeds planning to continue their education as juniors in four-year educational institutions.

The Eva V. Murdock Scholarship of $100 named for the wife of the retiring president of the college, will be awarded for the first time this spring, Mrs. Don Bradford, retiring president of the organization, announced today.

Mrs. Murdock has served as advisor to the organization, composed of wives of instructors, since its inception 11 years ago.

Funds for the scholarship will be gained annually from the Faculty Wives' Fashion Show, conducted each spring.

Application for the scholarship award may be made in the college counseling office, where detailed information for eligibility is available.

Preliminary plans for the scholarship were made at the Wives' dinner in the home of Mrs. Albert S. Karr on May 15. Newly elected officers for the 1958-1959 year were Mrs. William H. Harless, president; Mrs. Gerald Thompson, vice president; Mrs. James Caroon, secretary; and Mrs. A. Greenleaf, treasurer.

Retiring officers are Mrs. Bradford, president; Mrs. Robert Putzel, vice president; Mrs. Alfred Wrobel, secretary, and Mrs. Sheldon Nelson, treasurer.

Ann Landers

(Continued from Page Seven) the answer I wish I'd thought of. Right now I am stumped. What would you have done in case like this?

Yesterday was my birthday. My husband came home from work and didn't say anything except "Where's the beer?" When I couldn't stand it any more I said, "Honey, do you know what day it is?" He said "Yes. It's Tuesday." Then I said, "I know it's Tuesday. But isn't there something SPECIAL about it?"

After a few minutes of hemming and hawing he said, "Oh, yes, today is your birthday. Why don't you buy yourself a nice present and hand me the bill?" Mrs. Landers, what would you do?—Charlotte.

Dear Charlotte: I would buy myself a nice present and hand him the bill.

Dear Ann: I am a girl 15 and I'm crazy about a boy the same age. I've been going with him on the sneak because my parents don't like him. He made a bad impression on them last year when he got into a jam unscrewing city light bulbs and breaking them. He was one of a group of five. You would have thought they committed murder the way everyone carried on.

Yesterday my mother caught me in the drugstore with this boy and she almost popped a blood vessel. She said if I continue to see him she will send me to live with my grandmother in a small town. I would hate this. How can I make her see that she's being unfair to me?—Sugar Cane.

Any time a girl sees a boy on the sneak, she's being unfair to herself. Trust your mother to know a little more about life than you do. You're just a beginner, and she's had a post-graduate course. Things will be much more pleasant if you make friends with boys with whom you can be seen in broad daylight. Try it.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' new booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the HERALD and enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.) (C) 1958, Filed Enterprises, Inc.

MRS. ROBT. TRIMBLE AND EARL ... At the Outdoor Barbecue

Mrs. Trimble Gives Recipe Styled for Out-Door Living

Now is the time when California's famous out-door living comes into play and today's guest cook, Mrs. Robert Trimble gives a tip on an easy way to barbecue chicken.

The Trimble family, at 2706 Grand Summit Rd. bask in sunshine around their pool and enjoy outdoor meals as long as there's a speck of summertime.

They, Mr. and Mrs., and Earl Conner, 11 years old, came to Torrance three and a half years ago.

Mrs. Trimble came to California in 1944. She was graduated from the University of Washington with a BS degree. For the past year she has served as president of the Hillside PTA.

Mr. Trimble is a native of Princeton, Ill. He came to California in 1935 and is employed by Northrop Aircraft. He served as cubmaster of Pack 371-C and is now serving on the committee of Scout Troop 371. He is a man of hobbies and belongs to the Sports Car Club and the Model Railroad Club at Northrop.

Earl, a sixth grade student at Hillside, is a member of Scout Troop 371; is on the minor Padre team, Pacific Coast Little League, and plays the accordion with Betty Thomas' "Torrance Accordionettes."

In contributing this recipe, Mrs. Trimble says this is simple and gives her more time to enjoy the patio and pool. It can be prepared for cooking, hours in advance, and requires little or no supervision while cooking.

Music Club Plans Benefit

Vel de Nez Music and Record Club of the bay area will hold a benefit luncheon on Friday, June 6 at the American Legion Hall, 1260 Broad Ave., San Pedro.

Luncheon music will be played by Verna Flynn and other artists. There will be a handwork sale and a door prize.

Postpone Event

The Pancake Breakfast scheduled for June 14 to be given by the Pythian Sunshine Girls at the Community Hall in North Redondo Beach, has been postponed until a later date.
